Name and surname of student: Samal Gubasheva

Title of bachelor thesis:

Adobe Bricks as a Building Material

Supervisor of bachelor thesis: Ing. Iva Broukalová, Ph.D.

1. Fulfilment of the assignment:

The target of the bachelor thesis was to get acquainted with adobe bricks, collect information about technology, utilisation of the bricks in the history and now. Consider properties of adobe for contemporary building. This target was fulfilled.

2. Comments on student's performance:

The bachelor thesis followed up on previous bibliography search and essay elaborated in the semester. During elaboration of the thesis the student abandoned the original intention to make adobe brick, provide self-testing of the manufacturing technology and test the mechanical properties of adobe. The works on the thesis progressed slowly; the student needed a greater deal of supervisor's leading compared to average bachelor students.

3. Professional level of the thesis:

The thesis is a compilation of published investigations, the derived conclusions or evaluation of the information found in literature are rather brief. The scientific importance of the thesis is insignificant.
